ALL-WESTERN BOWLING MATCH

One Planned by Telegraph That Should Be a Corker.
DATE IS SET FOR NOV. 25

LOCAL ALLEYMEN BOOST SALT LAKE WITH W. B. C. TOURNEY.

A telegraphic bowling contest which promises to eclipse even the matches of last season when a great amount of interest was aroused among the bowlers of the West, is now being planned. A. L. Jenkins, secretary of the Western Bowling Congress, has started a movement promoting a contest for Nov. 25, which will include picked teams from Salt Lake, Denver, Butte, San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, Spokane, Tacoma, Seattle, and Portland. Letters have been mailed to the W. B. C. representatives in each of these cities asking that teams be selected for each of these matches, in fact bowlers of this city originated the scheme of bowling contests by wire.

Mr. Jenkins says that this match is one of the many schemes which will be adopted by the congress to bring its name before the public. The W. B. C. intends to make a bid for public favor this winter until it is recognized by every bowler in the sport in the part of the United States west of the Rocky mountains. Its object is to boost the west and run the affairs of the west by the people of the west.

It should not be overlooked that Salt Lake is the city which will hold the annual tourney of the Western Bowling Congress this year. A contest of the highest commercial bodies of the city are doing all in their power to boost the city and the City of Opportunity, the bowlers will help to make Salt Lake known among the towns of the country and this means hundreds of visitors in each city.

SLATS DAVIS RELEASED

Police Judge, However, Gives Former Salt Laker a Severe Lecture Before Turning Him Loose.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—"Slats" Davis claims to be a criterion on close decisions, but Judge Morgan gave him a lesson recently that may aid the indicator handier in his future work as a Pacific Coast leaguer. The judge showed him that the difference between felony and misdemeanor embezzlement was as defined as a safe hit along the foul line, and incidentally demonstrated to him that it is easier for a witness in a police court to land in prison on a perjury charge than it is for a base runner to steal second base.

Davis made his first appearance before Judge Morgan on a charge of having retained a diamond ring valued at $25 from Miss Bee Frances Rose of 221 Geary street. The judge wanted an explanation from Davis regarding an interview he had given the day of his arrest, to the effect that he had purchased the ring from a man and had not taken it from his lady friend while they were dining in Tait's. The reporter told the judge that Judge Morgan pointed out the error of his ways to Davis. Because in a felony charge it is imperative that the goods purloined should be more than $50 in value, the retention of Miss Rose's pin by Davis could not come under that portion of the statute. As Miss Rose refused to sue for the ring, the judge charged Davis with misdemeanor embezzlement, the court could do nothing but turn the umpire loose. In doing so, however, Judge Morgan handed out a warm roast to the man who sprung into baseball prominence because he is the "only college-bred umpire in the business."

Pacific Coast League.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—San Francisco won both games today. In the morning game they won by a combination of hits and errors. In the afternoon game pitchers had control, but the locals got hits when needed, and their fielding was faultless.

Oakland, Nov. 5.—Seattle won both games today. In the afternoon they manifested a striking affection for Hogan's delivery, which was particularly noticeable in the sixth, when a half-dozen hits were scored. Yet, despite the numerous hits, Oakland kept the score down. Oakland managed to tie the score in the eighth, and in the ninth a couple of hits gave Seattle the winning run. In the afternoon it was a northern victory from the start. Bledsoe was easy that ten hits and eight runs were made in the first three innings. Betts went to the center and did fairly well considering the condition of the score.

UTAH'S DEFEAT WAS EXPECTED

Weak Line Tells Story of How It Happened.

UP AGAINST IT THIS WEEK

GOLDEN COMES HERE TO PLAY 'VARSITY NEXT SATURDAY.

That Utah would be defeated by Boulder was expected by many, and by all who knew the real strength of the two teams, but hardly any person thought the defeat would be so complete. The team will arrive home this morning, when the boys will be busy telling their friends how it happened. It is not necessary to wait until that time, however, as the few words, "a weak line," tell the tale. Of course, to be added to the accident which kept Russell out of the game. True, Russell started in the play, but Russell with a weak ankle is not the Russell that can be depended on to gain yards when called upon to do so, and he was therefore of little practical use to the team.

The defeat should teach the University a valuable lesson, which is that the best coach in the world cannot make a winning football team unless he has the material. Slade took time and again demonstrated that he is a great coach, and it is not minding matters to say that Utah, and not Boulder, should have been the victors last Saturday had few sturdy men been secured for Utah's line by the men who should attend to these matters.

Prospects None Too Bright.
The prospects for the rest of the season for Utah are none too bright. Next Saturday the Varsity meets the School of Mines from Golden, the game being played in Salt Lake. The School of Mines has not played any hard games this season, and it is therefore difficult to get a line on it beyond the opinion

THIRD MAJOR LEAGUE

Rivalry Between National and American May Result in Another Big Organization.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 5.—Benjamin Shibe, president of the Athletic baseball club, believes that there may be a third major league next season.

"This has been one of the most prosperous years in the history of baseball," said Mr. Shibe, "and the rivalry that has been worked up between the two big leagues has done it all. I think that almost every club in each of the big leagues has made money this year. Minor leagues have also shared in the prosperity, and I do not know of any league that was forced to quit immediately after July 1, as has been such a common occurrence in former years."

"Take Providence and Baltimore in the east. Both cities are hungry for a higher class of ball than they have been having. Then there is Wilmington, Del. It is considered one of the best baseball towns here, and Richmond, Va., or perhaps Worcester, Mass., would do for a fourth city in the east."

"In the west Louisville, Indianapolis and Buffalo are anxious to have major league ball. With Columbia or Toledo as a fourth city a very compact circuit could be rounded out."

Mr. Shibe's suggestion may be realized. There is at present a movement under way, headed by George Tebeau of Louisville, to organize a league of national proportions, including the best cities in the eastern and western leagues.

HONEYMOON CHAMPION.

Bowler Postpones Fight Until After He Is Married.

New York, Nov. 5.—The meeting between Abe Attel and Jim Bowler of England for the international featherweight championship, has been put off until some time after January 1. Attel has just received a letter from Bowler announcing his decision on this point.

The little Britisher's reason is a sentimental one. He is to be married within the next few days, and as his wife does not want to spend her honeymoon nursing him back to life or with a brigadier who has been battered out of the majority of his good looks, he has determined to defer to her wishes.

"Besides," Bowler naively writes, "you might trim me and I want to be a champion all through my honeymoon."

McFARLAND AS PROMOTER

Well Known Bike Rider Trying to Induce Jeffries to Go to Australia and Fight.

There is a flutter in boxing circles over in Melbourne, caused by the report circulated that Jim Jeffries would make a trip to the Antipodes to fight one of the local champions for a purse of $25,000, or, approximately, $10,000. An Australian promoter has just telegraphed with certainty of the match, stating that the arrangements were made by Percy McFarland, the well known bicycle rider. Jeff himself is at present on his ranch near Los Angeles. He has announced his retirement from the ring, and his closest friends say that nothing can induce him to engage in another contest. The case, it is hardly likely that he has made arrangements to go as far as Melbourne for $25,000—a smaller purse than any he has received since he won the championship.

Jeffries is out of the game for good and all," said Billy Delaney, his closest friend, the other day. "Nothing on earth could induce him to come back. That ought to settle it."

BAD MAN FOUND TO HAVE SAWS

Charles Savage, Colored Postoffice Robber, Preparing to Break Jail.

MAN IS A HARD CRIMINAL

PINKERTON SAYS HE WAS HARD TO CATCH.

Four fine steel saws were found concealed on the person of Charles Savage, the colored postoffice robber, while he was in the Salt Lake county jail during the proceedings necessary to his transfer from the Utah state prison to Oregon, where he has other charges against him. The man was not out of custody for an instant.

He was carefully searched before he left the penitentiary. It is not known where or how he got the saws. All the officers know is that he had them, and that the saws were the finest instruments of the kind ever seen by the members of the sheriff's force. The saws were discovered before Savage had an opportunity to use them. A barricade was erected by the demonstrators' which the troops stormed and destroyed. Mobs driven from more potent constantly assembled at another. Rioting continued in the suburbs until late in the evening. The day's casualties were 19 killed, 47 seriously and 120 slightly injured and 100 persons arrested. Fully 25,000 demonstrators took part in the disorders. Quiet has now been restored and the authorities have resolved to resort to martial law if the disorders are repeated.

Has Long Record.

Savage had a long record before he was arrested for the robbery of the Salt Lake postoffice. About a year had elapsed before he was arrested for that crime. Meanwhile, he had added another charge or two, among them a mail robbery in Oregon, for which he will be tried at Portland, and a $10,000 diamond robbery. He was suspected of complicity in an even larger diamond robbery at Vancouver, B. C., and was arrested there, but managed to beat the case against him. He is wanted in Alabama and other states, as well as in Oregon.

Savage is one of the greatest criminals in the country, according to W. A. Pinkerton, who has had considerable to do with Savage during the past eight or ten years.

"He is one of the worst men to land that the agency was ever after," says Mr. Pinkerton. Mr. Pinkerton "called on" Savage at the Utah penitentiary not long ago.

JOINS GREEK CHURCH

Untricked, Episcopalian Ordained Yesterday in New York by Archbishop Tikon.

New York, Nov. 5.—With much ceremony Rev. Ignatius N. W. Irving, of Philadelphia, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Huntington, Pa., and untricked by Bishop Ethelbert Talbot, was today ordained as a priest of the holy orthodox Greek church in America at the Cathedral of St. Nicholas, by Archbishop Tikon, head of the Russian church in this country.

Yesterday Archbishop Tikon, assisted by the clergy of the cathedral, ordained Dr. Irving a deacon, and half an hour later he participated as deacon in the high mass celebrated in the cathedral in honor of St. Mary's day, one of the principal saints' days of the Russian church. Dr. Irving, having been previously received as a communicant of the Greek church after he had been refused a reception of his case by the higher authorities of the Episcopal church, Archbishop Tikon decided that as he had come to the Greek church with the degree of Doctor of Divinity his application for ordination as a priest could not be refused under the canonical law of the church.

Dr. Irving, it is said, will be attached as a priest to the cathedral and confine his work among the English-speaking members.

SCENES OF DISORDER.

Socialists Hold Suffrage Demonstrations at Prague.

Prague, Nov. 5.—Thousands of Socialists held suffrage demonstrations this morning, leading to serious disorders which continued all day long. The morning gathering was at the Wencesla Platz, and the crowds hooted and eventually fired on the police. After ineffectual attempts to clear the streets it was found necessary to summon troops to disperse the mobs. Rioting was resumed in the afternoon. A barricade was erected by the demonstrators' which the troops stormed and destroyed. Mobs driven from more potent constantly assembled at another. Rioting continued in the suburbs until late in the evening. The day's casualties were 19 killed, 47 seriously and 120 slightly injured and 100 persons arrested.
